Most current JETs would probably agree that when making international phone calls, a specific long distance company is a better option than using NTT or KDD. Here are two ways to do it without a computer. Depending on where you want to call, one might have a better rate than another.

Direct Dialing Discount

World Link is a direct dial company with no sign-up fee or monthly minimum. It handles domestic and international calls.

World Link

Tel: 042-388-5958 Fax: 042-388-1918
URL: <http://www.worldlink-tel.com/eintro.html>

Current Rates as of 5/2008 from your home phone, mobile phone or fax machine at ANY time...

America &amp; Canada:	15 yen per minute
UK:	20 yen per minute
Australia:	29 yen per minute

Check out their website here - [\[http://www.worldlink-tel.com/erates.html\]](http://www.worldlink-tel.com/erates.html) - for all other rates.

Callback Dialing Discount

There are also many callback providers. When you subscribe to the company, you will be given a phone number to call. You call this number and hang up after it rings. Their computers call you back and then you dial home. No sign-up fee and no monthly minimum.
